- If you receive an offer to your first choice program, it is the only offer that you will receive.

Equitable and Inclusive Admission Process

What is the Equitable and Inclusive Admission Process?

The University of Calgary is committed to establishing an equitable, diverse, and inclusive campus that is accessible to all. We strive to remove barriers that have been, and continue to be encountered by members of equity deserving groups including, but not limited to women, Indigenous peoples, visible/racialized minority persons, persons with disabilities, and LGBTQ2S+ persons.

The Equitable and Inclusive Admission Process (EQA) acknowledges that students have diverse identities, backgrounds, and experiences that have shaped opportunity structures and will consider factors that may have impacted a student's access, opportunities, and ability to succeed. We encourage and welcome applications from students from communities that experience social barriers, marginalization, and systematic discrimination and are committed to reviewing applicants in an equitable and inclusive manner, where all students feel valued, respected, and supported.

Applicants who will not meet the competitive averages required for an offer of admission may apply for consideration under the Equitable and Inclusive Admission Process by providing additional documentation.

Please note admission through EQA is not available for the Bachelor of Health Sciences (BHSc) programs. Students applying to a BHSc degree may be considered under EQA for their second choice program. Do you wish to be considered under the Equitable and Inclusive Admission Process?

Yes No
