1985 - 1994 LAMOUREUX HILL McKAY

Association of Barristers and Solicitors

Civil litigation with a concentration on personal injury, medical malpractice, wrongful dismissal and commercial litigation.

Notable Cases:

Dash Tours v. OCO '88 (1988), 63 Alta. L.R. (2d) 132 (Q.B.)

Reported decision on application for jury trial in commercial contract case.

Pavic v. Mallen (1988), 81 A.R. 119 (Q.B.)

Counsel for the Plaintiff. Among the first medical malpractice cases in Alberta ordered to go before a civil jury. Established important principle as to interpretation of Section 16(2) of the Jury Act, RSA 1980.

Robinson v. Doolittle (1988), 90 A.R. 376 (C.A.)

Counsel for the Plaintiff. Fatal accident case resulting in the decision of entitlement to a jury trial, proceeded to Court of Appeal which established important principle as to interpretation of Section 16(2) of the Jury Act.

1981 - 1985 McCAFFERY AND COMPANY

Associate and Partner

1976 - 1981 CUMMINGS ANDREWS

Associate and Partner

Trial lawyer in civil litigation including:

- matrimonial litigation, specifically custody and matrimonial property disputes; and
- personal injury litigation, specifically medical negligence, fatal accident, paraplegic and quadraplegic fact situations.

Notable Cases:

Worked extensively in all manner of serious personal injury litigation with R.G. Cummings, Q.C. who was senior counsel on two of the "Trilogy" cases, Andrews v. Grand & Toy Alberta LTD., [1978] 2 S.C.R. 229, and Thornton v. School Dist. No. 57 (Prince George), [1978] 2 S.C.R. 267.

James Alexander v. Marriott (unreported)

Proved that the client's minor injuries resulted in severe depression thus affecting overall earning capacity, giving rise to $200,000 settlement midway through trial. Mr. Justice Bowen (deceased) recommended, midway through trial, settlement for the insurance limits ($200,000) as future loss of productivity exceeding $500,000 was established in the opinion of the Court. One of the first cases in Alberta dealing with the issue of lost earning capacity.

Frizzell v. Little (1981), 31 A.R. 417 (Q.B.)

Luscombe v. Maschinter (1978), 5 Alta. L.R. (2d) 164 (Dist. Ct.)

One of the first cases awarding damages to vendor in repudiated land transaction.

1975 - 1976 EMERY JAMIESON (Edmonton, Alberta)

Articling Student

Articled with Wayne Drewry, Q.C., working in the area of defence insurance litigation.
