Dearly Loved

dealing with the death of a parent

©2007, Grief Support Program, Calgary Health Region,
Sharon Iversen, RN, MCE, Bereavement Educator

In this video you will meet four young people who have experienced the death of their parent. They speak about how their grief has impacted them including the following topics.

- ❖ facing the reality
- ❖ what the grief experience is like for them
- ❖ unhelpful/helpful things that others have said or done
- ❖ impact on the family
- ❖ ongoing connections that keep their parents' memory alive

This program will be helpful to the bereaved adult child who is mourning the death of a parent as well as family, friends and professionals to gain insight into the unique experiences associated with such a loss.
