dealing with the death of a child with special needs

c2005, Pediatric Palliative Care & Grief Support Service, Calgary Health Region,
Bev Berg BSW, RSW, CT, Grief Support Coordinator

In this program you will meet four parents who have experienced the death of a special needs child. These parents speak openly about their children and the many grief experiences they have encountered.

This program explores the following topics:

- ❖ grief at the time of diagnosis
- ❖ the most difficult times following the deaths of their children
- ❖ waves of grief
- ❖ impact on the family
- ❖ what helped/what didn't
- ❖ ways in which they honour the memories of their children

This program will be helpful not only to bereaved parents but to family, friends and professionals to gain insight into the unique experiences associated with such a loss.
