

History of Medicine Days 2023

32nd Annual In-Person Conference

Friday, March 17th & Saturday, March 18th, 2023

A national, two-day conference where medical, health care, history and literature students present 12-minute talks and/or 3-minute poster presentations on medical history – Libin Theatre, Health Sciences Centre.

Keynote Speaker – Dr. Christopher Green

Christopher D. Green is a professor in the "Historical, Theoretical, & Critical Studies of Psychology" program at York University in Toronto. His research has spanned from Ancient philosophy to the modern misuse of statistics in psychological research. Over the past decade, he has brought the tools of “digital history” to bear on the histories of psychology and related disciplines. His most recent book is Psychology and Its Cities (Routledge). He is currently the Editor of the journal History of Psychology.

Keynote Address

“Using Digital Networks to Explore
19th-Century Psychiatry Journals”

Friday, March 17th, 2023

12 Noon

- Libin Theatre -

