

Poster & set-up, visual information

Here is what the posters should look like, and the type of boards we use (Velcro), along with a placard with your name, institution and the order in which you will present. Your school / preceptor should be able to give you help with the design / layout.

