

Vincent J. Höckendorf

Is a third year Undergraduate student of Cognitive Science at the University of Osnabrück, Germany. Currently he is a visiting student researcher, assisting Dr. Frank Stahnisch with the project “German-Speaking Emigre-Neuroscientists in Canada and the United States” and writing the corresponding blog. He joined the program for three months through the RISE exchange program, sponsored by the German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD).

In Germany he is focusing his studies on the philosophy of mind and science.