Dear Student,

We hope you enjoy the term break next week! Now that we are halfway through the term, we encourage you to take this time off to reset and celebrate your accomplishments! Spend some time doing something you enjoy, whether exploring Calgary and the surrounding area or maybe just relaxing at home with a cup of hot chocolate.

Wishing you a pleasant term break,

International Student Services

Easing of travel requirements

Effective as of Feb. 28, 2022, at 12:01 a.m. EST, the Government of Canada will start to ease the travel requirements to enter Canada for fully vaccinated travellers.

- Fully-vaccinated travellers randomly selected for arrival testing will no longer need to quarantine while waiting for results.
- COVID-19 rapid antigen test result will now be accepted for the pre-arrival COVID-19 test. The rapid test must be authorized by the country in which it was purchased and must be administered by a laboratory, healthcare entity or telehealth service taken one day prior to the scheduled flight or arrival.

February term break holiday travel reminder

The Canadian government continues to discourage non-essential travel as the COVID-19 situation remains dynamic, and rapid changes can occur. Please note that, as of Feb. 9, 2022, the Government of Alberta has engaged in Step 1 of lifting public health measures.

All international students planning to travel during the term break will need to ensure that they meet travel requirements and have the proper documentation to re-enter Canada.
