SYLLABUS STATEMENT

UNIV fosters applied learning about global considerations on the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDG) within the contexts of Canada and Nepal. Learners will engage with key concepts of social and community development to foster a deeper understanding of the SDGs.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

UNIV engages learners in an applied field study of the SDG in the context of Canada and Nepal that begins with a critical examination of the SDGs in both countries. The course will be delivered entirely online. Drawing from the multisensory recordings of students enrolled in SOWK 557.45 or UNIV 501.72, learners will acquire practice-based, theoretical and empirical knowledge about the SDGs in global contexts. Centralizing anti-oppressive theory and practices, learners are encouraged to participate in critical reflexivity and examine their perspectives on social justice and methods of achieving social change.

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon completion of this course, students will be able to:

1. Engage in critical reflection and analysis of social issues and community development in Canada and Nepal.
2. Develop their capacity to engage with participatory learning processes.
3. Develop reciprocal learning and exchange methods with social work students from the University of Calgary on site in Nepal and Southwestern State College in Nepal.
4. Enhance their knowledge about local issues in their own community and in Nepal.
5. Apply Indigenous ways of knowing, being and doing in relation to the 2030 United Nations Sustainable Development Goals
6. Understand tools and approaches used to address the 2030 United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs; e.g., human rights and environmental sustainability) at a local level.
7. Apply their knowledge of SDGs in relationship to Canada and Nepal.

LEARNING RESOURCES

REQUIRED TEXTBOOKS AND/OR READINGS

- Readings are associated with each class. Please prepare yourself for class by completing the readings for the designated session.
- LEARNING TECHNOLOGIES AND REQUIREMENTS

A D2L site is set up for this course which contains required readings and other relevant class resources and materials. A laptop, desktop or mobile device with Internet access, microphone and speaker is required for D2L and Zoom access.

RELATIONSHIP TO OTHER COURSES

UNIV draws on exchange with students in SOWK 557.44 or UNIV 501.732. The content of this course is complementary to courses that focus on social policy, political anthropology, community development, international studies/relations, and social justice practice.

ADDITIONAL CLASSROOM CONDUCT AND RELATED INFORMATION

EQUITY, DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION

The Faculty of Social Work acknowledges the inequities experienced by racialized people, Indigenous people, and other marginalized populations. We aim to foster an environment that recognizes and celebrates diverse perspectives. Therefore, we are committed to eradicating all forms of injustices based on race, gender, ethnicity, sexual orientation, age, socio-economic status, religion, and disability.

GUIDELINES FOR ZOOM SESSIONS IN ONLINE CLASSES

Students are expected to participate actively in all Zoom sessions. If you are unable to attend a Zoom session, please contact your instructor to arrange an alternative activity for the missed session (e.g., to review a recorded session). Please be prepared, as best as you are able, to join class in a quiet space that will allow you to be fully present and engaged in Zoom sessions. Students will be advised by their instructor when they are expected, if they are able, to turn on their webcam (for group work, presentations, etc.). All students are expected to behave in a professional manner during the session.

MEDIA RECORDING FOR ASSESSMENT OF STUDENT LEARNING

The instructor may use media recordings as part of the assessment of students. This may include but is not limited to classroom discussions, presentations, clinical practice, or skills testing that occur during the course. These recordings will be used for student assessment purposes only and will not be shared or used for any other purpose.

ZOOM RECORDINGS OF ONLINE CLASSES

The instructor may record online Zoom class sessions for the purposes of supporting student learning in this class – such as making the recording available for review of the session or for students who miss a session. Students will be advised before the instructor initiates a recording of a Zoom session. These recordings will be used to support student learning only and will not be shared or used for any other purpose.

ASSESSMENT COMPONENTS

Assignment 1: Foundations: Situating of Self in Context (D2L posts)

Course Learning Outcomes: 1, 2, 4, 5, 6, & 7

One D2L post and two responses are worth 10% of final grade

Due: July 1

This is not a long or intensive assignment. The intent of this assignment is to lay the groundwork for your personal “lens” through which the content of this course will be examined.

My personal lens. Write a brief post that presents an integration of your thoughts and experiences in relation to the following questions: (1) Who am I (my identity and experiences)? (2) What would I consider as my core values? (3) What are two or three experiences that have shaped my thinking? (4) What are my goals and aspirations related to this course? (5) How do I plan to implement my learnings after completing this course?

Assignment 2: Foundations: Situating of Self in the SDGs (D2L posts)

Course Learning Outcomes: 1, 2, 4, 5, 6, & 7

One D2L post and two responses are worth 10% of final grade

Due: July 24

This is not a long or intensive assignment. The intent of this assignment is to provide an introduction to a Sustainable Development Goal of interest to you. For each of these posts approximately one-page long you must respond to two other posts.

- A. My selected SDG. Select and study one of the 14 SDGs and write a brief post that provides an overview of the SDG you have selected (the focus, intent and goals the rationale for selecting this SDG (self), and the context and implications of this SDG in the Canadian context.

Assignment 3: Multisensory Recording

Course Learning Outcomes: 3, 4, 5, & 6

Due: July 26, worth 20% of final grade

The multisensory recording consists of a 3-to-10-minute recording (collection of sounds, images, narration, etc.) demonstrating an emerging understanding on your chosen SDG as documented in Canada. This can serve as preliminary data gathering for Assignments 3 and 4. The recording will be posted on D2L and be made available to your partners in Nepal.

Assignment 4: Multisensory Research Project Group Presentation

Course Learning Outcomes: 3, 4, 5, 6 & 7

Due July 31, worth 30% of the final grade

The Multisensory Research Group Presentation is a group presentation (3-4 students) that invites students to incorporate primary research, field experiences and visual material (Nepal and Canada) to depict their chosen topic of the social issue and SDG in Nepal. Each group will provide a 15-minute presentation over Zoom (maximum 20 slides) on a chosen area of sustainable development. The project should link a key social issue in Nepal and or Canada with one of the SDGs as defined by the United Nations. Integrate theoretical, experiential and reflective learnings within this presentation. The presentation should identify why the social issue and goal is important, incorporate learnings from the Ótápímisskaan Training make explicit reference implications for social work practice in Nepal, Canada or globally.

Assignment 5: Multisensory Research Project Individual Report

Course Learning Outcomes: 3, 4, 5, 6, & 7

Due August 7: worth 30% of the final grade

Individual Report: Students will provide the following content in the assignment (can be written max 10 pages, not including appendices, references, and cover page), in Word format – not PDF – double spaced, 12-point font) or other format with permission (i.e., PowerPoint, movie, etc.). Students will need to clearly outline the social issue they were interested in and the relevant sustainable development challenge in relation to social work or community development. How are they being addressed in Nepal, what is working, what is not working, how it could be applied in Canada, and its impact for social work or community development practice.

ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION EXPECTATIONS

- Students are expected to attend the orientation sessions and be fully present and engaged in class activities and discussions in the field.
- Make-up options are available and must be determined in consultation with the instructor.

GUIDELINES FOR SUBMITTING ASSIGNMENTS

- Please submit all assignments electronically through their respective Dropbox in D2L. Assignments may be submitted in Word or PDF format, or format agreed with the instructor. Assignments should have a file name as follows: “Full name and assignment number” (e.g., Jane Smith Assignment 2). Assignments are due by 11:59pm on their due date. Please note that it is the student's responsibility to keep a copy of each submitted assignment and to ensure that the proper version is submitted.

LATE ASSIGNMENTS

- Students should get in touch with the instructor if they require an extension. Late assignments will be accepted only in exceptional circumstances and at the discretion of the instructor” or “assignments submitted after the deadline may be penalized with a grade reduction.

EXPECTATIONS FOR WRITING

- All assignments will be assessed partly on writing skills. Writing skills include not only surface correctness (grammar, punctuation, sentence structure, etc.) but also general clarity and organization. Sources used in research papers must be properly documented and referenced in APA 7th edition format. If you need writing support, please connect with the Student Success Centre, at: <https://www.ucalgary.ca/student-services/student-success/writing-support>

ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT

- It is expected that all work submitted in assignments is the student’s own work, written expressly by the student for this particular course. Students are reminded that academic misconduct, including plagiarism, has serious consequences, as set out in the University Calendar: <http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k.html>

GRADING

A student’s final grade for the course is the sum of the separate assignments. Students must receive the lowest percentage value of a letter grade range to receive that letter grade. Numerical grades will be rounded up. It is not necessary to pass each assignment separately to pass the course.

The University of Calgary Undergraduate Grading System and Faculty of Social Work Percentage Conversion will be used.

Grade	Grade Point	Description	Percentage Range

UNIVERSITY OF CALGARY POLICIES AND SUPPORTS

PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT

As members of the University community, students and staff are expected to demonstrate conduct that is consistent with the University of Calgary Calendar

<http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k.html>

Students and staff are also expected to demonstrate professional behaviour in class that promotes and maintains a positive and productive learning environment. Consistent with the aims of the Social Work Program and the University of Calgary, all students and staff are expected to respect, appreciate, and encourage expression of diverse world views and perspectives; to offer their fellow community members unconditional respect and constructive feedback; and to contribute to building learning communities that promote individual and collective professional and personal growth. While critical thought and debate is valued in response to concepts and opinions shared in class, feedback must always be focused on the ideas or opinions shared and not on the person who has stated them.

Students and staff are expected to model behaviour in class that is consistent with our professional values and ethics, as outlined in the Canadian Association for Social Workers, Code of Ethics (2005) and the Alberta College of Social Work Standards of Practice (2019). Both can be found online at:

<https://acsw.ab.ca/site/practice-resources?nav=sidebar>

ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATION

It is the student's responsibility to request academic accommodations according to the University policies and procedures. Students seeking an accommodation based on disability or medical concerns should contact Student Accessibility Services (SAS). SAS will process the request and issue letters of accommodation to instructors. For additional information on support services and accommodations for students with disabilities, visit www.ucalgary.ca/access/. Students who require an accommodation in relation to their coursework based on a protected ground other than disability should communicate this need in writing to their Instructor. The full policy on Student Accommodations is available <https://ucalgary.ca/legal-services/sites/default/files/teams/1/Policies-Student-Accommodation-Policy.pdf>

RESEARCH ETHICS

"If a student is interested in undertaking an assignment that will involve collecting information from members of the public, they should speak with the course instructor and consult the CFREB Ethics Website (<http://www.ucalgary.ca/research/researchers/ethics-compliance/cfreb>) before beginning the assignment.

ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT

For information on academic misconduct and its consequences, please see the University of Calgary Calendar at <http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k.html>

INSTRUCTOR INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

Course materials created by professor(s) (including presentations and posted notes, labs, case studies, assignments and exams) remain the intellectual property of the professor(s). These materials may NOT be reproduced, redistributed or copied without the explicit consent of the professor. The posting of course materials to third party websites such as note-sharing sites without permission is prohibited. Sharing of extracts of these course materials with other students enrolled in the course at the same time may be allowed under fair dealing.

COPYRIGHT LEGISLATION

All students are required to read the University of Calgary policy on Acceptable Use of Material Protected by Copyright (<https://ucalgary.ca/legal-services/sites/default/files/teams/1/Policies-Acceptable-Use-of-Material-Protected-by-Copyright-Policy.pdf>) and requirements of the copyright act (<https://laws-lois.justice.gc.ca/eng/acts/C-42/index.html>) to ensure they are aware of the consequences of unauthorised sharing of course materials (including instructor notes, electronic versions of textbooks etc.). Students who use material protected by copyright in violation of this policy may be disciplined under the Non-Academic Misconduct Policy.

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION AND PROTECTION OF PRIVACY

Student information will be collected in accordance with typical (or usual) classroom practice. Students' assignments will be accessible only by the authorized course faculty. Private information related to the individual student is treated with the utmost regard by the faculty at the University of Calgary.

SEXUAL VIOLENCE POLICY

The University recognizes that all members of the University Community should be able to learn, work, teach and live in an environment where they are free from harassment, discrimination, and violence. The University of Calgary's sexual violence policy guides us in how we respond to incidents of sexual violence, including supports available to those who have experienced or witnessed sexual violence, or those who are alleged to have committed sexual violence. It provides clear response procedures and timelines, defines complex concepts, and addresses incidents that occur off-campus in certain circumstances. Please see the policy available at <https://www.ucalgary.ca/legal-services/sites/default/files/teams/1/Policies-Sexual-Violence-Policy.pdf>
