What is Graduate Program?

As a subprogram of KU ISC, KU ISC Graduate Program is a special course designed to provide graduate-level classes for the current graduate students and the students who wish to acquire academic credits prior to their entrance to graduate schools. KU ISC Graduate Program offers a head start for those who wish to explore themselves to the next step during their undergraduate years, and an opportunity for the current graduate students to obtain the required credits as well as experience a vibrant Korean culture during your summer vacation.

DOORS ARE OPEN

If you are looking for a chance to come to Korea in person, KU ISC can be the answer!

Leave The Door Open

KU ISC 2021 will be conducted fully online except for the Korean Language Courses (6-Week).

Those who wish to take KU ISC 2021 in person, therefore, need to take at least one of the Korean Language courses (Off-line) from the 6-week program.

To notice, only the above mentioned students will be supported by the KU ISC team in preparing their documents to apply for the D-2-8 Visa, allowing to enter South Korea for KU ISC 2021.
