

Have you used a computer?

Computers are still the best technology to access courses online. Hence, knowing exactly your level of proficiency will be paramount when deciding whether to take courses online.

Write as many facts as you can remember about a time when you used a computer. One of them being a very positive experience and the other one being a challenging experience.

Facts	My positive experience	My challenging experience
What did you use it for?
Did you use it at home, in a classroom, the library, or at work?
What was the assignment or task you had to complete?
What software or apps did you have to use to complete the task?
Did you have any major technical difficulties?
Was there some kind of support available to you?
How did you feel throughout the experience?
